

HTAsiaLink Membership Application Form

Version September 2026 · Please read before completing

Thank you for your interest in joining HTAsiaLink. Membership is governed by Chapter 3 of the By-laws of HTAsiaLink. Please note that membership is not open to for-profit organisations or to individuals affiliated with such organisations. Participation in network activities is voluntary and self-funded; there is no membership fee.

How to apply

1. Complete Part A (organisational or associate membership) or Part B (individual membership) and sign Part C.
2. Email the completed form and attachments to the HTAsiaLink Secretariat:
htasialink.secretariat@htasialinknetwork.org
3. The Secretariat forwards the application to the Board of HTAsiaLink for endorsement. You will be notified of the outcome by email.

Membership categories (By-laws, Chapter 3)

Organisational membership — HTA institutions, government HTA units, academic centres and other relevant non-profit organisations in Asia and Oceania.

Associate membership — organisations based outside Asia and Oceania.

Individual membership — for individuals wishing to participate solely in the annual conference; valid for the period of the conference only. Individual membership is usually handled through conference registration; use Part B only if the Secretariat has asked you to.
